ALL-TIME: The Gateway Grizzlies hold an all-time record of 1,150-1,132 (.504). They are 646-525 (.552) at home, and 504-607 (.454) on the road. Founded in 2001, they are one of five clubs in league history (and one of four active clubs- Evansville, Washington, Windy City) with 1,000 or more wins.

LAST TIME: The Grizzlies won their sixth game in a row and clinched the midweek series against the Schaumburg Boomers, using a complete-game effort from Gage Vailes and early power to win 4-1.

Vailes was the story of the contest, facing the minimum amount of batters possible through four innings without allowing a hit. The Boomers would not get their second hit until the eighth, and would not score until two outs in the top of the ninth inning on a double and RBI single, denying the right-hander the shutout. But Vailes was able to get the final out, finishing with 10 strikeouts to tie his career high and throwing 76 of his 109 pitches for strikes.

Offensively, Dale Thomas' two-out, three-run homer in the bottom of the first inning gave Gateway all the offense they would need, with rookie infielder Gavin Baldwin collecting his first pro hit, an RBI single in the bottom of the eighth for the final margin.

PRODIGIOUS PITCHING: The Grizzlies' pitching staff has allowed 35 total runs over their last 11 games (3.2 per contest) and pitching to a 2.97 combined ERA in that span. Over the course of their now-six-game win streak, Gateway hurlers have posted a 2.09 ERA (13 earned runs in 56 innings).

POWER SURGE: With Dale Thomas' dinger yesterday, Gateway is currently in the midst of a 17-game streak with at least one home run, their longest since at least 2009 (15 straight). Their 43 home runs as a club currently rank second in the Frontier League (New Jersey- 48).

ALL OR NOTHING DEFENSE: The Grizzlies have been a very good defensive team for more than half of the season, with 21 games of errorless or single-error baseball in their first 29 contests. 15 of those 21 games have featured clean slates without a defensive miscue. In those games, they are 15-6. In the other eight games, however, they have made 24 of their 30 errors, and are 2-6 in those contests.

GRIZZLIES STARTER: Ben Harris takes the mound today seeking his fourth straight win. In his last start on Friday against the Mississippi Mud Monsters, Harris nearly completed a shutout of his own, finishing two outs shy of finishing what he started with no runs allowed,seven strikeouts and two walks. In his last three outings, the Chicagoland native has allowed just two runs over 19 2/3 innings for an 0.92 ERA, with 18 strikeouts against seven walks, throwing 62 percent of his pitches (199 of 322) for strikes.

SCHAUMBURG STARTER: Ross Thompson has thrown three "quality starts" in his first five outings this season, including his last start on Friday against the Evansville Otters, where he earned his fourth win with six innings of three-run ball and five strikeouts. He has also been a strikeout artist, with his 36 batters fanned tying him for third-most in the Frontier League with his teammate Derek Salata, and trailing only his other teammate Cole Cook as well as Sussex County's Rob Hensey.
