ALL-TIME: The Gateway Grizzlies currently hold an all-time record of 952-1,004 (.487). They are 537-467 (.535) at home, and 415-537 (.436) on the road. Founded in 2001, Gateway is one of five franchises in league history (Evansville, Washington, River City, Windy City) with 900 or more victories.

LAST TIME: The Gateway Grizzlies came back from a 3-0 deficit in the fifth inning last night thanks to clutch, two-out hitting, scoring four straight runs with two outs in their next three turns at bat for a 4-3 victory over the Florence Y'alls, securing a series split in their final meeting against Florence in 2022.

All of the runs in the game, in fact, scored with two outs. Florence got on the board thanks to a bases-loaded hit-by-pitch of Rodney Tennie in the fourth inning by J.P. Williams, and Ethan Stern's two-out, two-run homer in the fifth made it 3-0 Florence. Williams, however, was able to hold the line there over seven innings, and allowed his team to come back in what became his first win since June 4.

With two outs in the bottom of the fifth, Zach Racusin's two-run triple got the Grizzlies back in the game and made it 3-2, and the Grizzlies would tie it in the sixth, then take the lead in the seventh on RBI singles by Alex Hernandez and Abdiel Diaz, respectively, at 4-3. Sam Gardner and John Murphy then shut down the Y'alls in the eighth and ninth as Gateway won their 40th game of the season for the first time since 2016 and got the bounce-back split after a blowout loss to Florence on Wednesday.

WEST DIVISION RACE: The Grizzlies are 8.0 games behind the Schaumburg Boomers for the second wild card playoff spot. The Grizzlies also enter tonight 4.5 games behind the Lake Erie Crushers and 4.0 games back of the Joliet Slammers. Gateway's "tragic number" currently stands at three games.

DOWN IN THE DINGER DUMPS: Gateway's pitching staff has struggled badly with the long ball this year, with 49% of the runs they have allowed as a team (238 of 486) occurring on opposing homers. With 146 home runs allowed, the Grizzlies have set a new franchise record for a single season (139 in 2009, also the previous league record), with only the Empire State Greys (147) having allowed more.

GRIZZLIES STARTER: Brendan Feldmann has turned it on in his last four starts, pitching to a 2.10 ERA over 30 innings in that span. He is coming off a magnificent showing last Thursday at Joliet, allowing just two singles and one hit batter in eight shutout innings with six strikeouts, but settling for a no-decision. The Grizzlies' ace will look to have a better outing against the Boomers the second time- he pitched 6 2/3 innings on July 16 against them in Sauget, but all three hits he allowed were home runs, as he was charged with five earned runs total and a career-high six walks in a loss, striking out eight.

SCHAUMBURG STARTER: Shumpei Yoshikawa ranks just ahead of Feldmann on the Frontier League strikeouts list, tied for seventh-most with 107 punchouts. He is also coming off an eight-inning performance against Florence, striking out seven while allowing just two runs in his sixth win of the season. Tonight will be his third start of the season against Gateway, as he struck out 11 over eight innings in Sauget on July 15 in a win, but allowed a season-high six earned runs over six innings in a loss on June 9 at Schaumburg. He has allowed more than three earned runs just once in his last seven starts.
